

The image displays three historical political posters, each featuring a central illustration and text. The posters are arranged horizontally. Each poster has a header that reads "In CONGRESS, July 4, 1776. The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America." Below the header is a large, dark illustration. The left poster shows a muscular man, with the word "LIFE" in large letters below it. The middle poster shows the Statue of Liberty, with the word "LIBERTY" in large letters below it. The right poster shows a woman, with the words "Pursuit of Happiness" in large letters below it. Each poster also features a circular seal at the bottom right corner.
